Check List to go with Kit List:

- Please bring your completed Disclosure of Risk form.
- Where possible make sure you have everything on our kit list. If there are certain items you are not sure about or are more specialist then please contact us prior to the course, as we can lend/hire out certain items.
- Bring enough food for the duration of the course.
- If you have any personal survival equipment e.g. knife, saw, tarp etc. you are welcome to bring it along. All other equipment, First Aid and safety equipment will be provided by your instructor.
- We kindly ask that if you are COVID positive, please let us know and do not attend the course. This is to protect instructors and other participants.

BACKCOUNTRY SURVIVAL

Location - Kingairloch Estate

Meeting Point - The Estate Office, Kingairloch Estate, Kingairloch, Ardgour, Fort William, Scotland, PH33 7AE

What 3 Words: thrillers.ridge.aside

Using the Ferry – One of the routes will take you via the Corran Ferry which goes frequently. Costs are around £10. Check for ferry timings via <https://www.highland.gov.uk/corranferry>

Not using the Ferry – You will have to go via Kinlocheil. Just add this as a stop on Google Maps and it will help avoid the ferry.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

There is no direct public transport links to Kingairloch Estate. The nearest main town is Fort William. If you do not have your own vehicle, please contact us direct to try and organise a pickup.
